QThis class is offered on site and instructor location may vary. Your instructor may teach class to several locations at the same time. Attendance is required in a classroom.

≠A combination of Online, On Site, and/or Online Live instruction is provided by your instructor and your attendance is required.

≠In addition to regularly scheduled classroom hours, this class also requires time Online. You will need to determine how to best schedule your online time.

∞Clinical classes appear on your schedule from 7:00am to 7:30am, but actual clinical times will be determined by your clinical location.

!The instructor for this class will be teaching from the Ashland campus.

@Online course delivery requires you have access to a computer and the internet to receive instruction and participate in class activities. While there are no scheduled meeting times, you are responsible for meeting course deadlines as set by the instructor. For additional information about online resources available at Northwood Technical College go to <https://learningcommons.northwoodtech.edu/resources>. You are expected to engage in interactive assignments throughout the week and you will be asked to record speeches in front of a live audience for this class.

VThis is an OER (Open Educational Resources) course, meaning you do not have to buy a textbook. Instead, you will use internet resources and documents posted in Blackboard. If you are taking the course online, you are expected to regularly engage in the course throughout the week, with interactive assignments (such as midweek discussions). You will need to record your speeches in front of a live audience of four (audience members must be able to read and write to provide feedback). You can have a live virtual audience (e.g., via Facebook live) in order to follow safe-gathering guidelines. You will need a reliable recording device to record speeches and upload videos to YouTube.

Please be advised that low enrollment class sections may be cancelled.

You will be contacted by Student Services with information on other class sections available in alternate formats.
