Advanced Leadership in a Police Reform Era

Caliber Press, Steve Johnson Chief of Police Swansea, Illinois

Police work is changing and the demands on law enforcement leaders and their officers are increasingly challenging and complex. How can you, as a police supervisor, refocus on the "new era" of policing while remembering the core reason most of us started: To serve, help and protect?

Objectives:

- How to inspire good officers to stay in law enforcement, even in the midst of the today's increasing social tensions.

- Attract qualified new recruits in that same atmosphere.
- How to take concrete steps that will strengthen your leadership skills and effectiveness while enhancing your overall level of professionalism.
- Methods for informing political decisions that impact your agency and law enforcement in general without becoming "political."
- How you can reasonably implement and maintain minimum performance standards for your officers...something that may be more complicated than many expect.
- Create and maintain a strong sense of purpose, mission and accomplishment throughout your Agency.

Thursday, April 18, 2024

8 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Law Enforcement & Social Services Working Together
