

Transfer Summary
Northwood Tech Nursing – Associate Degree to Western Governors University (WGU) Programs
(Reviewed Fall 2024)

Program transfer to WGU is reviewed and updated annually in the fall of each academic year. For the most up-to-date information, please review the WGU – Northwood Tech - Transfer Site:

State \(wgu.edu\)

Nursing – Associate Degree to BS Health Science (Allied Health Focus). Eligible Nursing – Associate Degree graduates can transfer up to 59 credits into the BS Health Science (Allied Health Focus) program; 32 credits remain to complete the 91 credit degree at WGU.

Nursing – Associate Degree to BS and Post Baccalaureate Certificate Nursing – RN to MSN track (CCNE ACEN or NLN CNEA accredited). Eligible Nursing – Associate Degree graduates can transfer up to 83 credits into the BS and Post Baccalaureate Certificate Nursing – RN to MSN track program; 35 credits remain to complete the 118 credit degree at WGU.

Nursing – Associate Degree to BS Nursing (RN to BSN) – CCNE ACEN or NLN CNEA accredited. Eligible Nursing – Associate Degree graduates can transfer up to 83 credits into the BS Nursing (RN to BSN) – CCNE ACEN or NLN CNEA accredited program; 37 credits remain to complete the 118 credit degree at WGU.

The Nursing degree conferred by Western Governor's University requires a licensure for employment. Students interested in this transfer degree should contact the WGU program dean or the appropriate board to verify licensing requirements.