STUDENT POLICIES

FAILING GRADES

Any of the following may result in a failing grade in an ADN course:

1. Failure to attain at least a grade of "C" (80%) in the course
2. Failure to meet clinical performance expectations
3. Failure to complete all course requirements
4. Academic dishonesty
5. Failure to meet all safety precautions

ADN students are required to obtain a grade of "C" (80%) or better in ADN prerequisite, elective, and program courses. A minimum of C (2.0) is required in both General Anatomy and Physiology and Advanced Anatomy and Physiology.

All required coursework from each semester, including semester-required science and general studies courses, must be successfully completed before the student may take coursework from subsequent semesters.
